HARVARD'S FOOTBALL MEN AT WORK.

The Candidates Are Being Subjected to a Course of Light Training.

CAMBRIDGE, April 22.—The '04 football season at Harvard has fairly begun, and fifty-two candidates are training with Capt. Emmons in the spring squads. The men are being put through a course of light training preparatory to harder work later on. In the assay, the present work consists of a dumb bell drill at the gymnasium, followed by a run to Norton's Field, where the usual preliminary work of dropping on the ball, breaking through, and blocking and tackling is the order of the day. Capt. Emmons has gone a step further than his predecessors in introducing a study of posi-

Later on short but sharp practice games will be held, and from the showing made in these games the twenty-five or more candidates who will constitute the summer practice squads will be chosen. Ten match games are to be played. One of these is scheduled for May 16. Between two elevens selected from the present candidates, and another game will take place after the class rowing races, in which one of the teams will probably be made up largely of crew men.

Every effort has been made to bring out all the available material. Of last fall's squads there are T. J. Manahan, '96, who played left tackle; M. T. Connor, '97; A. Foster, the quarterback; R. G. Miller, L. S., a substitute two years ago; A. Borden, '98, a substitute quarterback; W. Laimbeer, '97, substitute guard; R. D. Wrenn, '98, the tennis champion of America; A. Gould, '98, substitute tackle, and E. N. Kingston, '98, substitute center.

Scholarship players are also playing. They are T. Hoague, captain and centre rush of last year's Hopkins' team; H. C. Smith, captain of Bouye's team; and H. Rice of Notre's School, all of whom will enter college next year.

The goal-kicking contest is also to be revived this spring. The prize money and management will offer prizes for accurate punting,

The outlook for cricket this year at Harvard is brighter than usual. Capt. Clark will have the unlucky number of thirteen candidates, but in face of the bad omen the team is likely to be a good one. The candidates are: F. Whitall, '94, who played at Haverford last year: R. Logan, '07, who has played in Philadelphia; A. P. Meade, '07; E. Dupont, '07, and H. Barker, '07, all of whom have played on the cricket eleven at St. Paul's School, Concord, last year; J. B. Kenny, Special Law, a member of the Wanderers of Canada; N. Bent, '05; Woodman, '05; H. Edwards, E. R. Matthews, and Capt. Clark, who played last year. Other candidates will be P. H. Curtis, '05; T. A. Adams, '05, and E. H. Pool, '05, captain of last year's eleven.

The Harvard Tennis Association have arranged to have thirty new dirt courts on Jarvis road, fifteen of which will probably be ready by May 1st. This date has been set for the annual interscholastic tournament, which for several years has been held in Cambridge. If for any reason the courts are not in condition by the time, the tournament will be held at the Cambridge Casino on Mt. Auburn street. Secretary Whitteiser of the National Tennis Association will act as referee.

Lake Yachtsmen Name a Rendezvous.
TORONTO, April 22.—The Lake Yacht Racing Association in session here last night decided to hold their annual rendezvous at Bodus, N. Y., beginning Friday. The cities represented in the association are Oswego, Rochester, Toronto, Hamilton, Kingston, and Belleville.

Gospel of the Ring.

Billy Dacey, the old-time light weight, declares that he will still in the ring, and is anxious to try conclusions with any eligible man in his class. Billy would very much like to meet Billy Vernon, the "Haverstraw Brickmaker," since for a limited number of rounds or "fights" for endurance, for any amount donated by some club.

Eddie Avery, at one time champion amateur bantam of America, has returned to the ring, and is now looking for a fight with Jack Levy, the local boxer.

Al Allen, the bantam boxer, says he cannot understand why the many hangers who are looking for a fighter for a shot of glory are not looking for a challenge.

Allen told a newspaper yesterday that he is open to try conclusions with any 102-pound lad in the country for a purse.

Tony Moran, the "Guinea," visited Tax Bros. office Saturday afternoon, and affirmed his willingness to crack up with any 135-pound lad in the country for a side bet amounting to $500 and a purse of like amount. Moran says his backer and himself can be found at 132 Third avenue, this city.

Teddy Glenn, who is reputed to be the champion featherweight of Western Pennsylvania, has sent a forfeit of $50 to the Pittsburgh Courier office in support of a challenge to meet Ike Weir, George Lavigne, "Young Boy" Smith or anyone else who can make a bona fide six-foot-a-side, ten-count-to-take place, within five days.

Rob Cunningham, the local bantam, is much embarrassed over the silence of Sammy Kelly, who has seen fit to ignore Cunningham's challenge for another fight. Cunningham was scheduled to fight Kelly at the local place last Monday night and Kelly got the decision. Cunningham admits that Kelly defeated him honestly on that occasion, but declares that that victory does not mean that Kelly is any better than himself. Cunningham visited Fox Ager office recently and declared that he would be highly delighted to take Kelly on again at 110 pounds, weigh in at the ringside, ten rounds or more.

The Pulse Chase correspondent at Albuquerque, New Mexico, writes: "All arrangements have been completed for the prize fight between Jim Flynn and Vermau Frazier, who are to fight at 140 pounds for $1,000 and a championship of the world. Flynn is a 140-pound champion of Arizona and New Mexico, and won six battles last year. Frazier is well known in prize ring circles, having defeated Gypsy (Lasson), Terry (Jack) and Red (Lasson). He is a 140-pound champion of the Burlington (Iowa) and fought a draw with Billy Smith. Great interest is manifested here over the good position, but I will fight Collins, who used to be my marriage partner. If Rose will deposit the money with the firm, I know him of old. It's a dollar (in a doubtful case) that I would not get a cent if I stayed the four rounds. He has cheated others: why should he make me an exception? Collins can't put me out in ten rounds, let alone four. I will fight Collins to a finish, and I'll take a good deal of money to see that he can't put me out in four rounds. Let Rose cut up or shut up now!"
